

DEA Museum Lecture Series

Please join the DEA Museum for the second lecture of the Fall 2012 lecture series.

INSIDE THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE

A look back at 30 years of efforts by the Mae Fah Luang Foundation under Royal Patronage and by DEA to end opium production and trafficking in this once highly volatile region.

October 4, 2012, 2 p.m. Eastern

DEA Museum Auditorium

700 Army Navy Drive

(please use Museum entrance on Hayes St.)

with LIVE webcast on www.deamuseum.org

Secretary General
"Khun Chai"

M.R. Disnadda Diskul "Khun Chai", Secretary General of the Mae Fah Luang Foundation, will discuss sustainable development and education efforts for the local hill tribe villagers - a model of success now being duplicated around the world. He will be joined by Joseph Reagan, DEA Regional Director for Southeast Asia, who will discuss efforts by DEA and the Royal Thai Police to end drug trafficking in Thailand over the past three decades.

DEA Regional Director for Southeast Asia
Joe Reagan

This discussion will be moderated by Tritia Toyota, an award-winning broadcast journalist with more than 25 years in Southern California television news, and currently an Adjunct Asst. Professor of Anthropology and Asian American Studies at UCLA.

Sign language interpretation will be provided.

For more information, please contact the DEA Museum Education Department at 202-307-3463.