Hearing Docket No. 24-44

ORDER GRANTING THE COMMONWEALTH PROJECT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SUBMIT AMENDED PROPOSED EXHIBIT LIST

On December 13, 2024, The Commonwealth Project (TCP) filed a motion (Motion for Leave or MFL) petitioning this tribunal for leave to submit a revised proposed exhibit list in advance of the hearing on the merits in this case. MFL at 2. The Motion for Leave seeks to supplement the proposed exhibit list it filed before the preliminary hearing conducted in this case. Id. TCP requests the admission of a revised proposed exhibit list attached to its Motion for Leave which includes some additional documents. Id. The Motion for Leave was timely filed in compliance with a deadline fixed by a prehearing ruling (PHR) issued on December 4, 2024. PHR at 7.

Accordingly, for the reasons stated therein,¹ TCP's Motion for Leave is herein GRANTED.

Dated: December 17, 2024

Chief Administrative Law Judge

¹ The filing presented represents that the tribunal "advised that all proposed exhibits submitted as part of Prehearing Statements would not be considered part of the record. Prehearing Ruling, pg. 3." MFL at 2 (citation included in Motion for Leave). To be clear, the PHR did not preemptively and summarily exclude all proposed exhibits. Instead, the PHR reminded the parties that "a foundation must be laid . . . for each and every proposed exhibit as a condition precedent for inclusion in the record." PHR at 3 (emphasis supplied). Stated differently no exhibit will be received without an offer and an appropriate foundation. All of the parties will have the opportunity to lay a foundation and introduce their proposed exhibits for admission into the record during the hearing.
