

hero (he-ro)—(1) a person noted for feats of courage or honorable conduct, especially one who has risked or sacrificed his life,

H

(2) DEA Special Agent Enrique "Kiki" Camarena.

Enrique Camarena never asked to be a hero. All he ever wanted was a chance to make a difference. Kiki gave his life in the fight against drugs. To honor Kiki, his family and friends wore red ribbons. As his story spread across the country, others began to wear red ribbons, too. Now, every year millions of Americans celebrate Red Ribbon Week (October 23-31) to remember Kiki and to take a stand – just as he did – against illegal drugs.

Kiki set an example for all of us. He showed us how one person can change things. He was-is-a hero, and he's still making a difference.
